Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Susan Kinsley has dedicated 24 years to serving the people of Beadle County and the surrounding area as the clerk for the state's Women, Infants and Children (WIC) program; and

Whereas, When she began her career, the WIC program was not yet computerized and many of the WIC vouchers had to be hand written; and

Whereas, Through all of the changes, Susan has enjoyed meeting all of the people that the job has allowed her to help; and

Whereas, Susan is retiring to travel with her husband of 45 years, Don, and to spend time with her five grandchildren; and

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement from the Beadle County WIC office on July 29, 2011:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 29, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I join with her family, colleagues, and friends in wishing her a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Eighth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Jason M. Gant, Secretary of State
